

October 3, 2017

Dear Parents,

Los Cerritos will be celebrating Red Ribbon Week in conjunction with schools throughout the nation during the week of October 23rd – 27th. Our theme will reflect the 2017 theme of “Your Future is Key so Stay Drug Free” with a focus on positive character traits.

Each day of the week will have a corresponding slogan and dress code as well as a take home token provided in the attached Ziploc bag. Listed below is all the necessary information:

DATE	SLOGAN	DRESS CODE	TOKEN
Monday, October 23 rd 	Teamwork is Key “Together e veryone a chieves m ore and drugs have the losing score”	Wear your favorite team jersey for any sport	Be Respectful, Be Responsible, Be Drug Free adhesive ribbon
Tuesday, October 24 th 	Intelligence is Key “We’re too bright to let drugs anywhere in our sight”	Wear clothing with bright colors (neon) and sunglasses	Glow bracelet
Wednesday, October 25 th 	Kindness is Key “Wear your heart on your sleeve to show you’re drug free”	Dress in heart stopping red clothes	Red-y to live a drug free life sticker
Thursday, October 26 th 	Imagination is Key “Dream of a place where drugs have been erased”	Halloween costume *coincides with Spooky Story Night No masks or restrictive/elaborate costumes will be allowed (ex. high heels/sandals, tight or midriff tops)	These Paws Don’t touch Drugs pencil
Friday, October 27 th 	Confidence is Key “Be the best you and show drugs they’re through ”	Wear a mismatched outfit and crazy hair	Emoji tattoo